The University Mace and Batons

The mace and batons are symbols of the authority and history of the University and are made from balusters from the original main staircase of Old Main, erected in 1875, the oldest University building now standing. The batons are carried by members of the faculty who are serving as marshals.

Marshals' Gowns

The gowns worn by the marshals are of the traditional University color, cardinal red.

Honor Stoles

White or cardinal stoles denote students who are candidates for University Honors. Cardinal represents Honors (cum laude) and white represents High Honors (magna cum laude). White stoles with cardinal and white cords represent Highest Honors (summa cum laude).

Academic Regalia

The styles of gowns differentiate degree level. Trim of doctoral gowns indicates nature of degree (black or royal blue — Ph.D.; light blue — Ed.D.). Certain members of the faculty wear distinctive gowns and hoods authorized by their doctoral institutions. The lining of the hood denotes the color(s) of the institution awarding the degree. The official colors of the University of Arkansas are cardinal and white.

The color of the velvet band around the hood designates the academic degree of the wearer. Some examples are listed below:

Agriculture	Maize	Medicine	Green
Architecture	Blue Violet	Music	Pink
Arts and Letters	White	Nursing	Apricot
Business and Bus. Admin.	Drab	Pharmacy	Solid Green
Economics	Copper	Philosophy	Royal Blue
Education	Light Blue	Physical Education	Sage Green
Engineering	Orange	Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Fine Arts	Dark Brown	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Forestry	Russett	Science	Gold
Human Environmental Sciences	Maroon	Social Science	Cream
Humanities	Crimson	Social Work	Citron
Journalism	Crimson	Speech	Silvery Gray
Law	Purple	Theology	Scarlet
Library Science	Lemon Yellow	Veterinary Science	Gray

The University Song

In 1909 a prize of fifty dollars was offered for the best poem relating to the University of Arkansas that should be capable of being set to music and used as a college song. Out of many entries, that of Mr. Brodie Payne, '06, of Hot Springs won the prize. The words were set to music by Professor H. D. Tovey, Director of the Conservatory of Music and Art at the University.

Alma Mater

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the mountains of God
Over the Fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod.
Beacon of Hope in the ways dreary lighted;
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us—
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.

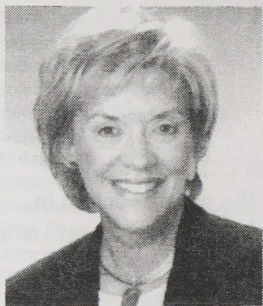

We, with our faces turned high to the Eastward
Proud of our place in the vanguard of Truth,
Will sing unto thee a new song of thanksgiving—
Honor to God and the Springtime of Youth.
Shout for the victory or tear for the vanquished;
Sunshine or tempest thy heart is e'er true;
Pride of the hills and the white-laden Lowlands—
Mother of Mothers, we kneel unto you.

Ever the Legions of Sin will assail us,
Even the Battle in Cities afar;
Still in the depth will thy Spirit eternal
Beckon us on like a piloting Star.
Down the dim years do thy dead children call thee,
Wafted to sleep while the Springtime was new;
We, of the Present, thy Hope of the Future—
Mother of Mothers, we pray unto you.

The University Seal

The Seal of the University of Arkansas is affixed to each diploma and is stamped in gold on each diploma cover. The central element in the Seal is the front entrance to Old Main, the oldest building on campus.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

JO LUCK

President and chief executive officer of Heifer International
Doctor of Arts and Humane Letters

Jo Luck, president and chief executive officer of Heifer International since 1992, has dedicated her career to humanitarian service. Heifer International is a nonprofit organization headquartered in Little Rock, Arkansas, that fights world hunger through support of micro-enterprises, community development, and ecologically sound animal and agriculture techniques. Since 1944, the organization has reached out to more than four million families in 125 countries and 39 states. Under Luck's leadership, Heifer has received national and international acclaim as a visionary organization committed to serving and empowering the world's poor.

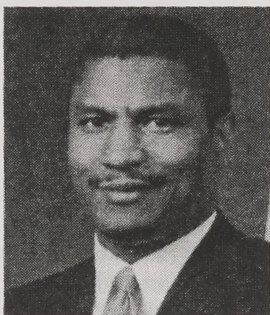

Luck attended Hendrix College, where from 1982 to 1983 she served as the first woman president of its Alumni Association. She pursued graduate studies at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government and was on the Executive Committee of its Alumni Advisory Board.

Luck has long been one of Arkansas' most active champions of social justice and environmental preservation. Before becoming president and CEO, she was Heifer's director of International Programs. She also served as executive director of the Arkansas Department of Parks and Tourism for over a decade, during which time she doubled the economic impact of the state's tourism industry from $1 billion to $2 billion. She was later elected to the Arkansas Tourism Industry's Hall of Fame. Luck also helped to establish Arkansas Advocates for Children and Families, as its first executive director, and was a founding member of Women Executives in State Government, the International Women's Forum, and the Arkansas Women's Leadership Forum.

Her commitment to public service has won Luck well-deserved accolades. She was recognized by Arkansas Business magazine as one of the Top 100 Women in Arkansas for the years 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, and 1999. In 2001, she was one of two Arkansans chosen by then-First Lady Hillary Clinton to attend the U.S. Women's Conference Circle. In the 1980s, Luck received a Distinguished Business Leader Award from what was then called the UA College of Business Administration. Recently, she was named to the National Advisory Board of the Clinton School of Public Service.

She has two children, Beth and Mark Wilson.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

RODNEY E. SLATER

Attorney, Patton Boggs, LLP

Doctor of Laws

Rodney Slater, the 13th U.S. Secretary of Transportation, was only the third Arkansan in history to head a federal department and serve as a secretary member of a president's cabinet.

Growing up in segregated Marianna, Arkansas, Slater began working at age six, hiring himself out in the cotton fields to save money for a red Schwinn bicycle. Overcoming racial obstacles during his childhood, he attended Eastern Michigan University as a scholar-athlete. He returned to his beloved home state for law school, graduating from the University of Arkansas School of Law in 1980.

Known for his vigor, fairness, and dedication to Arkansas, Slater has held a number of positions in the state over the course of his career. He served as assistant attorney general before becoming a member of then-Governor Bill Clinton's staff, first as executive assistant for Economic and Community Programs and later as special assistant for Community and Minority Affairs. He has also worked as director of governmental relations at Arkansas State University and secretary-treasurer of the Arkansas Bar Association. He was a member of the Arkansas State Highway Commission from 1987 to 1992 and its chairman from 1992 to 1993. For the next four years, he served as Federal Highway Commission administrator – the first African American in history to do so.

As Secretary, Slater transformed the Department of Transportation (DOT) into a forward-thinking organization dedicated to "putting people first." Managing 100,000 employees and a $60 billion annual budget from 1997 to 2001, he redefined transportation as more than concrete, asphalt, and steel. Under his leadership, DOT became the architect of modern transportation, promoting new technologies, environmental awareness, and public safety. He received bi-partisan acclaim for his visionary leadership. In fact, during his tenure DOT developed a strategic plan rated by Congress to be the best among all the federal agencies.

Slater was recently one of ten African Americans to receive a University of Arkansas Silas Hunt Legacy Award. Along with his wife, Cassandra Wilkins, and his daughter, Bridgette Josette, he lives in Washington, D.C., where he is a partner at Patton Boggs LLP.
